

Our Values and Vision [1]

Strong values define our culture and help us execute the Sandoz strategy in line with our mission and vision.

We have introduced Values and Behaviors that describe the professional behaviors we expect from our employees. These values form an integral part of the framework we use to recruit people, develop them, assess, and reward their performance. We hold ourselves to account against these values and behaviors.

Innovation

by experimenting and delivering solutions

Quality

by taking pride in doing ordinary things extraordinarily well

Collaboration

by championing teams with diverse perspectives

Performance

by prioritizing and making things happen with urgency

Courage

by speaking up, giving and receiving feedback

Integrity

by advocating high ethical standards

Our vision:

to become the main provider of high quality, affordable medicines and help secure long-term access to healthcare for people around the world. We promote equitable access to employment opportunities by cultivating an inclusive environment that values diversity.
